

The Scroll

Page 1 of 2

Words & Music By
Greg Chastain

The right hand held the scroll
I heard the angel shout...
Who can break the seal?
But no one could be found

As I began to weep
A voice cried out a-gain
Why are you weeping?
Why are you weeping?

See the Lion of Judah
The heir to David's throne
The sacrificial lamb
Can open up the scroll

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain
To receive power, wealth, wisdom and strength
And honor, and glory, let heaven and earth
Praise Your name

You are worthy to take the scroll
And to open the seals and make the call
Bought by your blood, savior of all

Worthy is the lamb who was slain
To receive power, wealth, wisdom and strength
And honor, and glory, let heaven and earth
Praise Your name

To Him who sits on the throne
And to the Lamb be praise above all
Honor and glory let heaven and earth
Praise His Name

And honor and glory
Let heaven and earth praise
Heaven and earth praise
Let heaven and earth
Praise His Name!

